

Dear Anastasia Reader,

New Moon Day - 16th July 2015

Welcome to our first UK Kin's Domain e-Newsletter and I hope this e-mail and e-newsletter finds you very well and enjoying the summer ☺

In the UK we are a small group (so far) of people who've expressed interest and excitement at the thought of establishing a Kin's Domain project here after reading the wonderful books by Vladimir Megré.

I originally decided to set up the website KinsDomain.org, through which you first made contact, so that at least there would be a Kin's Domain online presence for the UK but also, more importantly, so that we like-minded souls could begin connecting, start getting to know each other and eventually take the project forward. Therefore, I'd like to say a big thank you to you and the other lovely people who have made contact so far. Thank you for getting in touch ☺

I have no doubt that we will continue to grow as more people read the books. Anyhow, in order to help each of us connect more with one another, get to know each other and share ideas in order to move the project forward, I've set up a group page on Facebook. I was hoping to set up a private forum on the website but unfortunately it kept crashing so I opted for a private group page on Facebook instead.

It's: www.facebook.com/groups/KinsDomainUK/ or just type in: Kin's Domain UK and it should pop up, and then just click Join.

Some have already expressed great ideas to me, others have expressed their excitement and desire to do something towards the goal but perhaps do not have the ideas or the time. What I'm trying to say is that I may not be the best person to take this project forward (alone) but I will do what I can through the KinsDomain.org website and our Kin's Domain UK facebook page to connect us all. However, I think collectively, as a group of like-minded souls with like vision - great things will indeed happen!

Therefore, please make use of the facebook group page... please join it, (even if you feel you have nothing at all to contribute at this time, at least you'll be on there and will be able to see the discussions as they happen), do share your ideas, thoughts and feelings and begin getting to know each other! It all has to begin somewhere so why not us and why not now?! ☺

Perhaps one day, when things are becoming more concrete, we could all arrange a meet-up, which could be fun or a conference call through Skype or other means. As we get to know each other and the ideas are flowing I can compile a list on the website of our group goals and intentions as well as where help is required in order to progress things to the next step. If you require the website in any other way too, just let me know.

How exciting! I'm really looking forward to us all getting to know each other well ☺

Until soon my friends... and see you on our Facebook page - Kin's Domain UK
